

LSTA Projects (2009)	Total LSTA funds:	$1,652,433
----------------------	-------------------	-------------	--

Project Title	Library Name	LSTA Funds	Project Outcome
Basic Computer Literacy Course	Logan Public Library	$10,000	52 adults increased their basic computer skills and knowledge because of a series of workshops funded by LSTA.
Bingham Miners: Media Center S.M.A.R.T.	Bingham High School Library	$33,875	2556 high school students have increased their computer skills through use of up-to-date technology because of a new computer lab in their library. LSTA purchased the new technology.
Blast Away with Playaways	President Millard Fillmore Library	$9,353	655 Children under age 14 have increased their reading skills due to access to Playaways. LSTA funds were used to purchase the Playaways.
Blast from the Past: Digitizing Eastern Utah's Newspapers	Uintah County Library	$21,523	38,000 persons in Uintah and Grand counties have increased access to historical resources because of digitized newspapers. Digitization was paid for with LSTA funds.
Block Buster Brain Boosters	Millard School District Libraries	$4,039	3000 students, preschool - 12th grade have enhanced their reading and writing skills through use of Ipods. Technology was purchased with LSTA funds.
Bookmobile Program	Utah State Library Division	$120,557	Over 31,000 registered patrons in 14 counties have increased access to library materials and information due to purchases of books, DVDs and computers. LSTA funds were used for these purchases.
Changing the Providence Library into a Smart Technology Library	Providence Elementary School Library	$16,964	705 students have increased knowledge of Pioneer, and improved computer skills because of the purchase of computers with LSTA funds.
City of Provo Historic Photographs Digitization Project	Provo City Library	$6,410	75,000 people have increased access to historical photographs due to digitization paid for with LSTA funds.
Connecting Books and Teens	Delta City Library	$4,400	350 students increased their critical reading skills and thinking skills through participation in a book group. LSTA funds purchased books for the group.
Creating Connectivity @ Our Library	Garland Public Library	$7,702	1,100 patrons reported positive attitudes towards and increased usage of new computers that were purchased with LSTA funds.

Project Title	Library Name	LSTA Funds	Project Outcome
eAudio Book Program	Patrons in small and rural libraries in Utah have increased access to library materials and have improved life conditions due to eAudiobooks purchased with LSTA funds.	Patrons in small and rural libraries in Utah have increased access to library materials and have improved life conditions due to eAudiobooks purchased with LSTA funds.	Patrons in small and rural libraries in Utah have increased access to library materials and have improved life conditions due to eAudiobooks purchased with LSTA funds.
Economic Impact of Utah Libraries: Pilot Study	Cedar City Library	$2,800	USL has increased knowledge of the economic impact of Utah libraries based on a pilot project paid for with LSTA funds.
Enhanced Access and Technology Infrastructure	Tremonton City Library	$3,259	6400 patrons have access to increased skills and knowledge of foreign languages through software purchased with LSTA funds.
ESL LAB (Every Student Literate...Library Access Belivers)	Logan High School Library	$9,284	Over 1,000 students improved their attitudes towards computer usages, and increased computer skills because of computers purchased with LSTA funds.
Fairview Elementary Library Technology Expansion Project	Fairview Elementary School Library	$21,400	350 elementary school students have increased their computer skills through use of up-to-date technology because of a new computer lab in their library. LSTA purchased the new technology.
Guess What I Learned I Can Do at the Library?	Richfield Public Library	$6,750	Over 75 children and parents increased their ASL skills and knowledge based on workshops paid with LSTA funds.
HMS Audio Books	Hurricane Middle School Library	$2,461	200 students have increased their reading skills based on access to audio books purchased with LSTA funds.
Lender Support Program	Utah State Library Division	$196,999	Rural residents in Utah have improved life conditions based on LSTA grants for ILL services to 21 libraries and library systems across Utah.
Library Services for Navajo Speakers	Utah State Library Division	$10,488	The informational, educational and literacy skills of the Navajo population were improved because of the purchase of and publicity about library materials purchased with LSTA funds.

Project Title	Library Name	LSTA Funds	Project Outcome
LSTA Administration	Utah State Library Division	$56,997	LSTA grantees and USL staff have increased knowledge and understanding of the LSTA grants program.
Midvale Middle School's Extreme Computer Makeover	Midvale Middle School	$24,630	830 students have increased their information literacy through computers purchased with LSTA funds.
n-Search	Washington County School District Libraries	$20,150	7,500 students have increased their awareness of online resources as well as their technology skills because of computers purchased with LSTA funds.
Outstanding Library Award 2009	Grand County Public Library	$1,000	Staff members improved their information skills through attendance at the ARSL Conference.
Pioneer: Utah's Online Library	Utah State Library Division	$322,558	Utah residents statewide have improved access to information resources that is not available to them , for free, from other resources. LSTA funds purchased databases and training.
Playaways for Patrons	Delta City Library	$4,050	3,000 patrons changed their behavior to include circulation of Playaways paid for with LSTA funds.
Portable Presentation Center	Richmond Public Library	$5,923	2,800 library patrons increased their information access and literacy skills through the purchase of equipment for a presentation center with LSTA funds.
Program for the Blind and Disabled	Utah State Library Division	$34,463	Blind and disabled individuals statewide have increased access to information and materials that meet their specific needs with purchases made with LSTA funds.
Program for the Bind and Disabled - Program Support	Utah State Library Division	$226,003	Blind and disabled individuals statewide receive reader's advisory information, increased access to materials, and access to the Radio Reading Service
Rally Friends, Inspire Direction (RFID)	Weber County Library	$100,000	60,000 library patrons have changed their behavior by checking out more library materials and using self-check out stations. Equipment purchased with LSTA funds.
Science Rocks!	Brigham City Library	$7,400	1,000 students showed a positive change in attitude towards science because of library materials purchased with LSTA funds.

Project Title	Library Name	LSTA Funds	Project Outcome
Searching for Answers: Electronic Resources for Offenders	Utah State Prison Libraries	$5,462	1,700 inmates changed their behavior and increased their skills by using new educational software purchased with LSTA funds.
Self-Help Books: Change Your Life Now!	Utah State Prison Libraries	$9,000	875 inmates changed their behavior and attitudes by using self-help books purchased with LSTA funds.
Server for Service	Beaver Public Library	$2,882	Headstart students developed independent computer skills based on use of computers purchased with LSTA funds.
Serving the ESL and Visually Impaired Community	Richfield Public Library	$3,240	2700 patrons reported a change in attitude from neutral to positive based on interaction with specific technology and ESL materials purchased with LSTA funds.
Serving Up a New Server	Manti Public Library	$4,680	800 patrons reported a change in attitude from negative to positive based on interaction with new computers purchased with LSTA funds.
Spanish Language Software and Technology Grant	Newton Town Library	$2,900	269 patrons increased their knowledge and improved their Spanish language skills based on interaction with computers and software purchased with LSTA funds.
Summer Reading Program	Utah State Library Division	$10,437	Over 73,000 children, ages 1-16, participated in the summer reading program statewide. Reading skills were maintained or increased due to participation in the program. LSTA funds purchased materials and paid for training.
Teens Read! (Year 3)	Utah State Library Division	$6,000	4,600 juvenile inmates had increased access to new library materials purchased with LSTA funds. In addition, they had increased reading and literacy skills through use of materials.
Weber County and the World Wars: A Documentary Heritage	Weber State University: Stewart Library	$9,500	5,000 users have increased access to information, and increased knowledge based on use of the materials provided. LSTA funds paid for digitization of materials.
Weber Warriors Wired: Additional & Updated Technology in the Library Media Center	Weber High School Library	$20,228	1,800 students have increased their research and computer skills based on interaction with computers purchased with LSTA funds.
White Pine Middle School Multimedia Learning Center	White Pine Middle School Library	$6,264	400 students increased their research and media literacy skills based on training with and use of new computers and multi-media equipment purchased with LSTA funds.

Project Title	Library Name	LSTA Funds	Project Outcome
Yeah! New Stuff!	Utah State Hospital Patient Library	$2,700	380 patients have shown positive changes in behavior and attitudes based on interactions with MP3 players purchased with LSTA funds.
Young Parents Program Gives Birth to a Library	Young Parents Media Center: Granite School District	$6,805	150 young parents learned new computer skills based on interaction with technology purchased with LSTA funds
TOTAL		$1,381,536	