STANDARDS FOR UTAH’S PUBLIC LIBRARIES

CREATING THE FUTURE FOR UTAH LIBRARIES

Dear Utah Public Library Directors, Staff, and Board Members:

The Library Certification process is designed to keep libraries relevant in an ever-changing world. As library directors, boards, and others leverage this process with City and County officials, the process offers concrete reasons why we need to stay funded, have that space, or progress in our own unique ways. The goal is to help each library grow.

The certification process was designed by an evolving team of library directors from all sizes of public libraries, and in varying areas of the State. Librarians have worked together to define success, all the while knowing that “success is defined locally.”

COLLEEN EGGETT
STATE LIBRARIAN

Section I – Basic Certification Standards (Required) lists 19 standards. These standards must be followed to ensure compliance with state law and accepted library practices.

Section II – Key Statistical Benchmarks (Required) lists the Benchmarks or targets related to “Library Support by the Community” and “Library Support by the City / County.” In the Spring of each year, after all the City and County public library statistics have been submitted to the State Library, the benchmarks are updated and a customized benchmark report is produced for each certified library. State Library consultants assigned to each public library are available to discuss what these benchmarks might mean for the library. Certified libraries must meet or exceed the benchmark in at least 7 of the 13 categories.

Section III – Application for Quality Library Designation (Optional) is the opportunity to be recognized as a Quality Library. Libraries that meet 5 of the 9 quality library criteria will not have to go through the next recertification round in the following fiscal year. Quality libraries will receive public recognition and a certificate of achievement from the State Library.

The appendices include information that will be helpful in the recertification process. Appendix A is a Glossary of Library Terms used in this document, and Appendix B includes References to Utah Code. The online version of this document includes links to Utah Code. Appendix C lists the Required Documentation needed for each standard.

Certified Public Libraries are eligible for Community Library Enhancement Funds (CLEF). The certification process outlined in this document will guide public libraries in their work to maximize the taxpayer investment in library services.

Warm Regards,
Colleen Eggett, State Librarian

AUTHORITY

Utah Code Annotated (UCA) §9-7-205 (1) (n) : “The [USL] Board shall . . .develop standards for public libraries.”

PURPOSE

The Standards for Utah's Public Libraries outline the minimum levels for library services in the state. The Standards provide libraries with leverage to encourage sustainable levels of support in the community and determine the library's eligibility to receive Community Library Enhancement Funds (CLEF) from the State of Utah. The certification renewal process also recognizes those libraries that provide quality library service. Libraries in Utah serving legal service areas of 50,000 or less are subject to the certification renewal process. Libraries serving legal service areas over 50,000 people are exempt from this certification renewal process.

WHAT IS A PUBLIC LIBRARY?

The Utah Code declares that a public library is established and maintained by a city governing body or a county legislative body (UCA §9-7-401, 501). In addition, for certification purposes, the State Library defines a public library as follows:

An entity that is established under state enabling laws or regulations to serve a community, district, or region, and that provides at least the following:

1. An organized collection of printed or other library materials, or a combination thereof
2. Paid staff
3. An established schedule in which services of the staff are available to the public;
4. The facilities necessary to support such a collection, staff, and schedule; and
5. Is supported in whole or in part with public funds.

In addition, the State Library defines a branch library as an auxiliary unit of an administrative entity (i.e. public library system) which has at least all of the following:

1. Separate quarters
2. An organized collection of library materials
3. Paid staff
4. Regularly scheduled hours for being open to the public

CERTIFICATION RENEWAL REQUIREMENTS & BENEFITS

The Standards for Utah's Public Libraries consists of three parts:

1. Section I – Basic Certification Standards (Required)
2. Section II – Key Statistical Benchmarks (Required)
3. Section III – Application for Quality Library Designation (Optional)

Section I – Basic Certification Standards. These standards represent a baseline for public library services in the areas of governance, administration, funding/finances, personnel, access and services, materials and resources, technology, and facilities. The library must fill out an online form certifying compliance with each standard. The library must compile evidence of their compliance (e.g. copies of reports, policies, etc.) and share these with a State Library consultant during a site visit.

Section II – Key Statistical Benchmarks. These benchmarks are calculated by the State Library using the data from the most recent statistical annual report. There are 13 benchmarks set at the level that 90% of Utah’s certified libraries currently meet or exceed. The library must meet at least 7 of the 13 benchmarks.

Section III – Application for Quality Library Designation. This section is optional. Libraries choosing to pursue the designation of Quality Library must complete the online form and meet at least 5 of the 9 quality criteria. Libraries that receive Quality designation will be recertified for a two year period.

Libraries that successfully meet the requirements of Section I and II will receive a letter of certification from the State Library and become eligible to receive funds from the State of Utah through the Community Library Enhancement Fund (CLEF).

CERTIFICATION RENEWAL PROCESS

The certification of a public library is valid for the period of July 1 through June 30 and must be renewed annually. The certification renewal process includes the following timeline:

May 1 – May 31

- The library completes the online version of Section I: Basic Certification, compiles evidence of compliance with each standard, and submits the documents to the State Library.

June 1 – June 30

- A consultant from the State Library will meet with the library director to review the Section I: Basic Certification Standards, Section II: Key Statistical Benchmarks, and the documents submitted by the library as evidence of compliance with each standard.
- The consultant makes a recommendation to the State Librarian for issuing the official letter of certification or probation:
  - A. Certification – The library successfully meets the requirements of Section I: Basic Certification Standards and Section II: Key Statistical Benchmarks and is certified for the next period of July 1 through June 30.
  - B. Probation – The library did not meet the requirements of Section I: Basic Certification Standards and Section II: Key Statistical Benchmarks.

PROBATION STATUS

When a library fails to meet the requirements of Section I or Section II, the library receives a letter of probation. Depending on which Section failed, the library must do the following to continue to receive the CLEF benefit:

Failure to meet standards in Section I – Basic Certification Standards

If the library failed to meet one or more standards in Section I:

- The library will be placed on Probation Status.
- The library will be eligible to receive the State of Utah funds during the next CLEF benefit distribution.
- The library will present to the State Library, within 30 days of receiving the letter of probation, a plan to address and fix the deficient standards in Section I.
- The library will implement the plan and fix the deficient standard by May 1, when the next certification renewal process begins.
- The library will participate in the next certification renewal process:
  - If the library meets the requirements of Section I and Section II the library is fully certified once more.
  - If the library again fails to meet the requirements of Section I, the library becomes de-certified and must apply for certification like a new library.

Failure to meet standards in Section II – Key Statistical Benchmarks

If the library failed to meet at least seven of the twelve benchmarks in Section II:

- The library will be placed on Probation Status, Year 1 of 2.
- The library will be eligible to receive the State of Utah funds during the next CLEF benefit distribution.
- The library will present to the State Library, within 30 days of receiving the letter of probation, a plan to address and fix the deficient benchmarks in Section II. It is understood that the library may NOT be able to solve these deficiencies by May 1, when the next certification renewal process begins.
- The library will participate in the next certification renewal process. If the library meets the requirements of Section I and Section II, the library is fully certified.
- If the library fails to meet the requirements of Section II, the library will be placed on Probation Status, Year 2 of 2. The library continues to work the plan and fix the deficient benchmarks.
- The library will be eligible to receive the State of Utah funds during the following CLEF benefit distribution.
- The library will participate in the next certification renewal process:
  - If the library meets the requirements of Section I and Section II the library is fully certified once more.
  - If the library fails to meet the requirements of Section II for the second year in a row, the library's certification is suspended and the library is not eligible to receive the CLEF benefit.
    - The certification suspension can be in effect no longer than two years.
    - The library can regain certification during the next certification renewal process provided it meets the requirements of Section I and Section II.
    - If the library is not able to regain full certification within two years of having its certification suspended, the library becomes de-certified and must apply for certification like a new library.

A library may appeal the de-certification decision by the State Librarian to the State Library Board within 30 days of receipt of the letter, specifying the reasons why they believe they are qualified for certification. The decision of the State Library Board of an appeal is final.

AREAS OF RAPID GROWTH – WAIVER PROCESS

In some areas of Utah, communities are experiencing rapid population growth, in excess of the state average. For libraries experiencing growth in excess of twice the state population growth rate 3 year average (based on annual U.S. Census Subcounty Resident Population Estimates), the library may apply for a waiver of meeting all the requirements of Section II – Key Statistical Benchmarks in order to achieve certification. The waiver request must address which benchmarks the library does not meet, what efforts are being made to address those deficiencies, and what policies and practices are in place that will allow the library to achieve full certification when the population growth falls within twice the state average. The waiver request must be addressed to the State Librarian. Written approval or denial of certification by waiver will be made within 60 days of receipt of the letter.

A library may appeal the decision by the State Librarian to the State Library Board within 30 days of receipt of a denial letter, specifying the reasons why they believe they are qualified for certification based on population growth. The decision of the State Library Board of an appeal shall be final.

QUALITY LIBRARY DESIGNATION (OPTIONAL)

During the certification renewal process, a library may seek the Quality Library Designation by completing the application in Section III of the certification standards and meeting five or more of the quality library criteria. A benefit of receiving this designation is that the library will not have to go through the certification renewal process the following year. After the application is received, a team of consultants at the State Library will review the information and make a final recommendation to the State Librarian. Notification to applicants of the team's final recommendation will be done by July 31.

REVIEW OF CERTIFICATION STANDARDS

These standards will be reviewed annually by a committee of public library directors and State Library staff prior to the certification renewal process.

SECTION II – KEY STATISTICAL BENCHMARKS (REQUIRED)

BASED ON THE MOST RECENT STATISTICS PROVIDED BY LIBRARIES WITH LEGAL SERVICE AREAS UNDER 50,000 PEOPLE (Updated: April 2018)

The Benchmark for each of the categories below is set at the level that 90% of Utah's certified libraries currently meet or exceed. A certified library should meet or exceed the benchmark in at least 7 of the 13 categories. Your consultant will provide you with a table indicating where your library stands against the Benchmarks (see the example on page 11). To do your own calculation, follow this example:

Library Visits

1. Multiply the per capita Benchmark indicated below by your library's service population; this will be your library's Benchmark number.*
2. Compare this number with your actual number of visitors in your most recent statistical annual report.
3. If your actual number of visitors is higher than the Benchmark number, you have passed that category.

For your convenience, we have also provided a figure for calculating the level of an "average" library (the 50th percentile) and an "above-average" library (the 70th percentile) in each category.
