Thank you for joining us for the second edition of the Book Buzz Newsletter! For those of you who joined after the first edition was released, here is a recap! The Book Buzz program, the Utah State Library Division and the Utah Division of Multicultural Affairs have partnered together to bring a series of twelve books to unpack race and shape greater consciousness. These literary works have been selected to celebrate Black literature and narratives and to honor the immense diversity of their experiences. Each month this newsletter will be highlighting the twelve different titles in this new series of books, in the meantime check out all of the titles HERE.
